

“ I truly understand the value of Adagio. The information it can generate in such a short time is amazing. I continually impress my boss when I am able to run a simple report which provides him with the exact information he is looking for. As an added bonus, he thinks it's something I've worked on all day! We have a large receivables book, and Adagio is a great tool for managing it. I recommend Adagio to anyone who is looking for a great accounting system. ”

Laura, Altafacts Search & Registry Inc.

“ I find Adagio very easy to use and teach to new employees. The fact that I can often get the same information about customers or inventory from more than one module is very convenient, since I don't have to open every module. As an accountant, I find the GL user-friendly and invaluable for tracking financial statement information. We are very focused on reporting financial and sales results, and Adagio gives us superior ability to do that. ”

Heather, CGA, Hedy Canada

“ We had been using ACCPAC Plus for many years. Our staff found Adagio the most compatible, easiest to use, and most similar to what they had been used to. Also, we were pleased we were able to maintain our historical data. Carol has been our consultant for over 10 years. She is quick, reliable, and she has effectively lead us out of several near catastrophes! ”

Val, Calgary Region Home Builders Association

“ It's a great feeling knowing that we will always get our problems solved as quickly as possible when we are on Carol's team. ”
